Terms You Need to Know

Alkaline Hydrolysis (AH): AH is an alternative disposition—a chemical process that uses a heated solution of water and potassium hydroxide or sodium hydroxide under pressure and agitation to reduce a body to components of liquid and bone. The resulting bone fragments are dried and reduced to a substance resembling cremated ashes.

Care and Maintenance Fund: A trust fund that helps ensure the long-term upkeep of a cemetery.

Casket: A container intended to hold a dead human body for funeral, cremation or interment purposes that is not a vault, burial container or grave liner.

Cremation: A process that uses incineration to reduce a body to an ash or granular substance.

Columbarium: A structure designed for the purpose of interring cremated human remains in niches or compartments.

Crypt/Mausoleum: A structure, other than a columbarium, used as a place for the interment of human remains in tombs, crypts or compartments.

Family-led Death Care: A family member may provide funeral services, including transport, documentation including death registration, and body care, without a licence and for no charge.

Grave: A place for burial of human remains, typically a hole dug in the ground and marked by a stone or mound.

Interment: The burial of human remains, including the placement of human remains in a lot (grave, crypt or niche.)

Interment rights: The right to require or direct the interment of human remains in a lot or the disinterment of human remains from that lot.

Lot: An area of land in a cemetery containing, or set aside to contain, interred human remains and includes a tomb, crypt or compartment in a mausoleum and a niche or compartment in a columbarium and any other similar facility or receptacle.

Niche: A space in a columbarium or mausoleum wall to hold an urn.

Plot: Two or more lots sold as a unit.

Provider: The operator of a cemetery, crematorium, funeral establishment or transfer service.

Scattering rights: The right to scatter cremated remains in a cemetery.

Shroud: A piece of fabric used to wrap a body to prepare for burial. Some cemeteries will accept a dead human body for burial in a shroud.

Supplies: Caskets, markers and monuments, vaults, urns and flowers.

Transfer Service: A service to the public with respect to the disposition of dead human bodies, including the transportation of dead human bodies and the filling out of necessary documentation with respect to the disposition of dead human bodies.

Urn: A container for the reduced and processed human remains resulting from cremation or alkaline hydrolysis.

Vault: A secondary container that is protective, rigid, sometimes waterproof, and usually made of concrete, fiberglass, plastic or similar reinforced material, within which the primary casket, coffin or urn containing human remains is placed prior to burial in the ground.

1. Before making arrangements

One of the first things to determine after someone dies is who has the authority to decide what will happen to the body of the deceased.

WHO HAS THE LEGAL AUTHORITY TO MAKE DECISIONS?

Generally, the person(s) appointed as the Estate Trustee(s) has the legal authority to make such decisions. Ontario has statutes and common law to determine who may act as the legal representative(s) when a person passes away without a valid will. The ultimate decision maker will be specific to the circumstances of each case but will generally default to a court-appointed Estate Administrator or the deceased's next of kin.

Here is a partial list of who may act as the legal representative:

1. Estate trustee, also called an executor or executrix, who is named in the will (or an administrator appointed by the court)
2. Spouse
3. Adult children (18 and over)

Laws with respect to the handling of the deceased person's body are different than the use and inheritance of interment rights. If you are the legal representative, the Provider may ask you to provide photo identification and proof of your authority, such as a valid will or court order, before making arrangements. To learn more visit www.ontario.ca and search for the phrase "What to do when someone dies".

TRANSPORTING THE DECEASED BODY

A person must first be declared dead by a doctor, nurse practitioner or coroner. You may then contact a transfer service, funeral home or family member to transport the body from the place of death. Family members may transfer the body, if those services are provided at no charge and/or benefit.

HOW TO CHOOSE A PROVIDER

Refer to the chart on page 8 to see the types of services offered by each Provider.

When choosing a Provider:

- Consider recommendations from family or friends.
- Talk with more than one Provider at different facilities about their services. Make sure you are confident that they understand and are able to meet your needs.
- Ask the Provider for a price list and written price estimate to assist you when comparing prices and services.
- Ask for and review a copy of the cemetery's by-laws.

HOW DO I DONATE A BODY OR ORGANS?

To donate organs for transplant, or the entire body for scientific research, arrangements must be made quickly and directly with health professionals. To learn more, contact the Trillium Gift of Life Network at www.giftoflife.on.ca.

WHAT ARE THE MINIMUM SERVICES I MUST PURCHASE FOR FINAL DISPOSITION (DEATH CARE)?

That's a good question. There is a minimum of services people are required to purchase.

The Minimum Services charge represents the minimum non-declinable services provided by a licensed provider and required to facilitate the disposition of a deceased person, whether by cremation, burial or hydrolysis.

This Minimum Services charge includes transferring the deceased from the place of death (or Coroner's Office, hospital, airport, etc.) to a holding room or residence (in the case of a family-led funeral), until the necessary documentation and/or rituals are completed prior to the burial, cremation or hydrolysis. Families may transfer the body of their deceased family member without a hiring a transfer service.

Additional fees may apply for a suitable rigid container, mileage, pacemaker/radioactive implant removal (cremation and hydrolysis only) and pallbearers (burial only).

The following costs must be itemized:

- Professional and staff services
- Documentation
- Minimum preparation of remains
- Facilities for preparation/embalming/shelter (Note: Embalming is not a required service, except in specific circumstances.)
- Initial transfer of remains
- Administration vehicle
- Final transfer of remains

What is not included in the Minimum Services charge?

- Any supplies, such as a casket, outer burial container, urn, stationery, etc.
- Any additional services that may be selected, such as pallbearers for interment, embalming, visitation and funeral services
- Applicable taxes
- Disbursements to be paid on your behalf, such as costs related to the cemetery interment, crematorium charges, coroner's certificate, death registration fee to obtain the burial permit, etc.

2. Making some important decisions

When making arrangements, there are important decisions you will have to make.

FAMILY-LED DEATH CARE

Family members can legally provide funeral services without a licence, except for arterial embalming, for their deceased loved one. They cannot be paid for this service. This includes transportation, documentation including death registration, obtaining a Coroner's Cremation Certificate (required for all cremations) or Out of Province Certificate (if a body will cross a provincial boundary for disposition) or arranging religious or personal ceremonies to mark the death.

While it is possible for family members to provide these services without a licence, in some cases it may be advisable for family members to seek the services of a licensed funeral establishment or transfer service for some aspects of funeral arrangements. For example; a family member may not have a vehicle that would allow for the dignified transportation of a dead human body, or the means to transfer a casket or container into or out of a residence for a home funeral or vigil. For some people, the experience of grieving may make it difficult to adequately prepare and submit the necessary documentation to register a death or obtain a Coroner's Cremation Certificate.

When contemplating family-led death care, it is important to note that institutions, like hospitals or nursing homes, may not be aware that it is legal for family members to provide funeral services for their deceased family members. It is best that planning for family-led death care take place well in advance, including direct communication with the institutions or organizations that may be involved to ensure that there is no misunderstanding at the time of need.

WHAT ARE SOME FUNERAL OR MEMORIAL SERVICE OPTIONS?

A celebration of someone's life helps surviving family and friends grieve the loss of a loved one. You can choose a funeral, memorial or graveside service. A service may be private (by invitation only), or public (open to anyone). Other options are to have a public or private visitation/viewing, a funeral procession, a home funeral and/or home vigil, or any other respectful social, traditional or cultural ritual.

IS A CASKET REQUIRED AND WHAT ARE THE OPTIONS?

Caskets vary in style, and prices may range from a few hundred to several thousand dollars.

You may buy or rent a casket or provide your own, however if a Provider considers the casket you are providing to be unsafe, inappropriate for its intended use, or it does not meet the requirements of the cemetery or crematorium, the Provider can refuse to accept the casket. If the Provider allows you to provide your own casket the Provider cannot charge you an extra fee.

Keep in mind that some caskets cannot be used for cremation, because they are made of materials that will not burn. Price lists should clearly indicate which caskets are not suitable for cremation. If you are uncertain, ask the Provider for written confirmation of suitability. The casket must also meet cemetery and crematorium by-laws. Caskets are not used during the alkaline hydrolysis process.

GREEN BURIALS

The definition of "green burials" varies. Generally, a green burial is considered to include: an unembalmed dead human body, buried in a biodegradable casket or container, without a vault or grave liner. In some cemeteries, there may be a designated section for green burials where grave markers and monuments are not used, and the ground is covered with native species of plants such as wildflowers instead of grass. Some cemeteries, will accept a body that is wrapped in a shroud. A shroud may be a flexible piece of fabric used to enclose or wrap the body for burial. Cemeteries that accept shrouded bodies for burial may also require a rigid backing board to allow for the safe lowering of the body into the grave. Cemeteries that accept or accommodate green and/or shroud burials must detail these provisions in the cemetery by-laws — consumers are encouraged to research their options.

WHAT IS EMBALMING AND IS IT REQUIRED?

Embalming is the process of replacing blood and bodily fluids with a chemical solution to temporarily preserve the body. In Ontario, embalming is not required by law, however, in some instances a Provider may recommend it due to the length of time between death and the visitation, burial, cremation or hydrolysis. Ask your funeral establishment representative to explain the process of embalming so that you can make an informed choice.

WHAT BURIAL OPTIONS DO I HAVE?

With burial, the deceased is placed in a grave with or without a casket. A rigid container may be required to transport the body. A casket is required when placing the body in a crypt. Check the cemetery's by-laws for its specific burial requirements.

In Ontario, the body or cremated remains must be buried in a licensed cemetery.

For burial in a grave you may purchase a vault or outer liner to further protect the body in the casket. This container is placed in the ground and is usually made of concrete or fiberglass. Generally, it is not mandatory to use a vault or outer liner unless required by the medical officer of health.

For burial in a crypt (entombment) the casket is placed in a sealed crypt in a mausoleum. A mausoleum is usually an above-ground structure made of concrete, stone or marble that contains a number of crypts. Not all cemeteries have mausoleums.

HOW DO I TRANSPORT HUMAN REMAINS OUT OF THE PROVINCE?

A deceased person's body may be moved outside of Ontario once a Provider has obtained a certificate from a Coroner.

If a deceased person is being transported to another country, then embalming and a sealed casket or container may be required by the receiving country or the transportation company.

If you choose to transport human remains (including cremated remains) out of Ontario, you must also follow the laws that apply in the receiving province or country. Contact a Provider for details or visit www.catsa.gc.ca/cremated-remains

WHAT CAN BE DONE WITH CREMATED/ALKALINE HYDROLYSIS REMAINS?

With cremation or alkaline hydrolysis the deceased's body or skeletal remains are reduced to an ash or granular substance. The remains are then placed in a small box or urn along with a metal identification tag. You may provide your own urn or purchase one from a Provider. Check the crematorium and cemetery by-laws for the type and size of container allowed. If you choose cremation or alkaline hydrolysis, it is strongly recommended that you make plans for the final disposition of the remains.

A Provider can store remains for up to one year and may charge a deposit for this service. If the remains are claimed within one year the deposit will be refunded in full. After one year the Provider may use the deposit to inter the remains in the common grounds of a cemetery.

WHAT ARE INTERMENT/SCATTERING RIGHTS?

Interment rights refer to the right to bury human remains (including cremated remains) in a lot (grave, crypt or niche). If you are named on the interment rights certificate, you are the interment rights holder, and may request a burial or disinterment, or place a decoration, marker, monument or inscription on the monument, as long as you follow the cemetery's by-laws

If you are the scattering rights holder, you may scatter cremated remains in a designated place within the cemetery, in accordance with its by-laws.

Note: Ownership of all cemetery land remains the property of the cemetery owner. Interment rights and scattering rights holders acquire only the right to use the lot or scattering grounds and to have a marker or monument installed, in keeping with the cemetery's by-laws.

SCATTERING: WHAT IS PERMISSIBLE IN ONTARIO?

Here are some choices:

- You may buy rights to bury or scatter the remains in a designated part of a cemetery. Scattering rights may not be available at all cemeteries.
- You may buy rights to place the cremated remains in a niche (or compartment) in a columbarium.
- Although the burial of cremated remains is not permitted outside a licensed cemetery, you may scatter the ashes or cremated remains on private property with the written consent of the land owner.
- You may also hire a Provider to scatter the remains. Only a Provider is permitted to charge you for this service.
- You may also scatter the cremated remains on unoccupied Crown lands and Crown lands covered by water so long as there are no signs prohibiting scattering.
- If you wish to scatter cremated remains on municipally-owned lands, check local by-laws first.
- For more information, visit www.ontario.ca and search for the crown use policy

WHAT SHOULD I KNOW ABOUT BUYING INTERMENT OR SCATTERING RIGHTS?

Before you make a purchase, each cemetery must provide:

- Its current price list;
- Its by-laws; and
- An explanation of any restrictions on the rights you are buying (such as restrictions on memorialization options, monuments, etc.).

Contact a cemetery directly, compare prices and review the by-laws before you decide where to inter or scatter your loved ones remains. Your contract will specify the number of interments (bodies or cremated remains) or scatterings you are entitled to with each interment or scattering right.

Part of the money you pay for interment and scattering rights will be placed in a care and maintenance fund. Income earned from this fund is used to maintain the cemetery for the future. The care and maintenance contribution depends on the type and cost of the interment rights.

RESELLING INTERMENT OR SCATTERING RIGHTS

You may resell interment or scattering rights to a third party if the cemetery by-laws allow it. If you resell, you must inform the cemetery operator, who will then transfer the rights to the new owner. You cannot resell rights for a price greater than the price on that cemetery's current price list. If the by-laws do not allow you to resell the rights to a third party, the cemetery operator must buy them from you at the price on the cemetery's current price list, less any payments that were made to the cemetery's care and maintenance fund. A cemetery operator may charge an administration fee when you resell your rights. The cemetery does not have to buy back rights for a grave in a plot (two or more lots originally bought as a unit) if one of those graves has been used.

ARE THERE ANY TYPES OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS?

If you do not have enough money to pay for funeral or transfer services or for cremation, hydrolysis or burial, you may be eligible for assistance from your local municipality. Speak to your Provider and/or municipality, and take the appropriate follow-up measures before you sign a contract with a Provider.

If approved, the municipality's financial assistance plan may limit your choice of casket, urn or grave and related services. Some municipalities may require that you pay a portion of the cost.

3. Your contract

When you make arrangements with a Provider, you may want to bring a family member or friend along with you as the process can be stressful. Once the supplies and services are selected, you will be asked to sign a contract with the Provider.

WHAT SHOULD I KNOW BEFORE SIGNING A CONTRACT?

Make sure you are dealing with a licensed Provider (ask to see their licence).

Ensure the Provider has given you a copy of the price list before signing a contract, as required by law. The Provider is also required to post its price list on its public website along with a copy of this Consumer Information Guide.

Review the cemetery's or crematorium's by-laws for any special rules that you must follow, including restrictions on the purchase of supplies and services.

Make sure the contract has details about the things you have agreed to buy or rent, such as:

- Services, facilities and vehicles
- Casket, urn, vault, grave, crypt, niche or monument
- Any other payments (for newspaper notices, police escorts, honorarium for religious officials, catering, etc.)
- Any applicable taxes and commissions or benefits the Provider will receive for referrals

If the supplies and services you have purchased are not available at the time of need, you must be provided with supplies and services of equivalent value, at no additional cost.

HOW DO I CANCEL A CONTRACT?

In some cases, you may cancel your contract in writing at any time before the supplies or services have been provided.

Here is the cancellation process in most cases:

1. Give written notice to the Provider stating that you want to cancel the contract.

2. Within 30 days of providing written notice, the Provider will refund your payment for any supplies or services that you have not yet received.
3. The amount of your refund will depend on when you cancel and whether the Provider has incurred costs.

CANCELLING A CONTRACT FOR INTERMENT OR SCATTERING RIGHTS

Cancellation within 30 days of purchase:

If you have not used the rights, you may cancel your contract for interment and scattering rights by giving written notice of cancellation to the operator and you will receive a full refund.

Cancellation after 30 days of purchase:

Cancellation rights vary, depending on whether the cemetery operator's bylaws prohibit the resale of interment/scattering rights.

If a cemetery's bylaws prohibit resale, then upon written notice of cancellation to the operator, you will receive a refund of the amount paid or the price on the operator's current price list (whichever is greater), less the amount contributed for that right and deposited into the cemetery's care and maintenance fund/account.

If a cemetery's bylaws do not prohibit resale, then the cemetery operator is not obligated to buy back the rights and you may be required to resell the rights on the open market. (The selling price cannot be more than the listed or market price, whichever is less.) You may also try to negotiate a buy-back price with the operator. If you intend to resell the rights to a third party, you must contact the operator to have:

1. The rights transferred,
2. A new rights certificate issued and
3. The new information documented in the cemetery's records; the operator may charge an administrative fee for this resale.

YOUR CONTRACT CHECKLIST

The Provider must give you a copy of the contract upon signing and other important documents. Make sure your contract includes:

- The name of the person who is paying for the contract (the purchaser).
- The name of the person for whom the supplies or services are to be provided (the recipient/the deceased).
- The name of the licensed operator you are dealing with (the Provider).
- A description of the supplies or services you have chosen and details of when and how they are to be provided.
- The price of each supply or service, taxes and the total price.
- All payment, cancellation and refund policies, including the right to change your mind and cancel the contract.
- For interment rights, make sure the contract also includes the detailed location and description of the grave, crypt or niche.
- A copy of this guide.
- For scattering rights, make sure the contract also includes the location and description of where the scattering may occur.

Your Provider must also give you the following documents:
 - A copy of the cemetery's or crematorium's by-laws.
 - A certificate of interment rights or scattering rights once these rights are paid in full. The certificate must include the name of the person who can legally authorize an interment or scattering.

DID YOU KNOW?

For the contract to be valid (referred to as “enforceable”), it must be signed by you and the Provider. Ensure that you receive a signed copy. The Provider will explain your cancellation and refund rights.

DID YOU KNOW? BE SPECIFIC.

Review the contract and price list carefully and ask questions to ensure that all of your requirements and expectations are specified. For example, if you want jewelry removed before the casket is closed, make sure these details are included in the contract.

4. Pre-arranging and prepaying

Many people plan ahead to prepare for their death, and some choose to pay in advance for their final arrangements.

WHY IS PLANNING AHEAD A GOOD IDEA?

- It saves your family and friends from having to make many difficult decisions during a time of grief.
- It gives you a say in planning your own arrangements.
- It gives you time to assess and compare your options.
- Prepaying may reduce or eliminate the financial burden on your family.

WHAT HAPPENS UPON DEATH?

Your legal representative (such as the estate trustee, etc.) should take your pre-arrangement documents to the Provider to show proof of payment, discuss arrangements and to make any changes to the contract if necessary.

If a supply or service is no longer available, one of two things may occur:

1. Your Provider may make a reasonable substitution, but at no extra charge. Substitutions must be similar in value, style, design and construction to what is included in your contract.
2. Your legal representative may cancel that part of the contract by providing written authorization or may enter into a new contract.

DID YOU KNOW? DISCUSS YOUR PLANS

After your death, your legal representative may, by law, change your pre-arranged funeral, burial, cremation or hydrolysis plans. It is important to discuss your wishes with him or her and your family.

DO I HAVE TO PAY IN ADVANCE?

No, you can simply pre-arrange your supplies or services without prepaying. Some Providers may keep a record of your arrangements at no cost - ask your Provider about this service. If you decide to prepay, your Provider will ask you to sign a contract. See “Your Prepayment Checklist” on page 21.

HOW CAN I PREPAY MY CONTRACT?

With most Providers, there are two ways to prepay:

Trust:

1. You can pay the money to the Provider to be held for you “in trust”, either at a bank, trust company or with an independent trustee. It will earn income over the years until it is needed to pay for the supplies or services you have requested.

Insurance/Annuity:

2. You can buy insurance from an insurance company. Your Provider may have an insurance program in place. With this option, you should buy enough insurance to cover the costs of your pre-arranged supplies or services at the time of need. The insurance company will then pay the Provider at the time of your death. If you buy insurance directly from an insurance company, you will still need to have a contract in place with a Provider to have the insurance policy assigned directly to them.

DID YOU KNOW? TRUST AND INSURANCE

Refunds on cancellation of prepaid contracts funded by trusts differ from those funded by insurance policies. It’s a good idea to learn as much as you can before you talk to a Provider.

HOW DO I BUY INSURANCE TO PAY FOR PRE-ARRANGED SERVICES?

Buying insurance is a two-step process:

1. You must sign a prepaid contract with your Provider for the services and supplies you choose.
2. You must sign an insurance contract (called “the policy”) with the insurance company to pay the Provider for the supplies and services. The policy will set out the rules you and the insurance company must follow, including payment of any fees, your right to cancel the policy and any rights you may have to a refund.

Ask your Provider to explain the advantages and disadvantages of their prepaid trust and insurance options.

IMPORTANT: If you don’t understand what your Provider is asking you to sign or to pay for, stop. Ask more questions. Alternatively, you can find another Provider who will explain things more clearly.

DID YOU KNOW? CANCELLATION CHARGES

Ask about any fees, interest, financing and cancellation charges that may apply and the total cost of making monthly payments. In most cases, you will save money by paying in full rather than over time.

WHAT HAPPENS IF PRICES INCREASE AFTER I'VE PREPAID?

At the time of death, the money held in trust (or the insurance proceeds), will be used to pay for the supplies and services set out in the contract. Costs will be based on prices in effect at the time of death. Whether you will be required to pay additional charges depends on whether your contract is guaranteed (see below). Your Provider must give the legal representative a statement showing:

- The amount your insurance will pay for your prepaid supplies or services, or the amount held in trust to pay for them (including income earned); and
- The current cost of the supplies or services you requested.

If prices have gone up, the income (interest or growth) is used to offset the increase in costs.

If you have a guaranteed contract: You (or your legal representative) will not be asked to pay more for supplies or services, as long as you have met the terms of your contract. Taxes are not guaranteed. You will have to sign the contract and pay for any services, supplies or taxes that were not included in the prepaid contract. All prepaid contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2012, must be guaranteed.

If you have a prepaid contract signed prior to July 1, 2012, it may not be guaranteed: You (or your legal representative) may have to pay additional costs to cover the higher prices. For example, if you have an existing non-guaranteed contract for which the price of supplies and services is $8,000 at the time of death, and the value of the trust or insurance is $7,500, your estate will owe the Provider $500.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THERE IS MONEY LEFT OVER AFTER EVERYTHING IN THE CONTRACT IS PAID FOR?

The answer depends on the date of your contract and the laws that applied at the time you signed:

- For cemetery or crematorium contracts signed on or after April 1, 1992, and funeral or transfer service contracts signed on or after June 1, 1990, leftover money will be paid to the estate. The law does not require a refund for contracts entered into before these dates.
- For funeral and transfer service contracts entered into after July 1, 2012, the purchaser can select a person who can receive leftover money.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I WANT TO CANCEL OR CHANGE MY PREPAID CONTRACT?

You, your legal representative or another person named in the contract may cancel or change your prepaid contract at any time before the supplies or services are provided. You must give the Provider notice in writing.

You may or may not receive all of your money back. The following rules apply:

- If your money was to be held in trust and you cancel within 30 days of the date you entered into the contract, you will receive a full refund.

- After 30 days, you will receive a refund plus any income earned, but the Provider may retain 10% of the amount paid to a maximum of $350. In addition, the Provider is required to refund the income earned or the income that would have been earned on the money had it been deposited as required by law.
- With rare exception the Provider will retain the value of the supplies and services that have been provided prior to cancellation.
- Cancellation of a prepaid contract does not necessarily cancel the related insurance policy. Cancellation fees for an insurance policy vary. Before you buy or cancel an insurance policy, you should clearly understand the implications of the insurance company's cancellation policy.

HOW IS MY PREPAID MONEY PROTECTED?

Ontario law protects your prepaid money in several ways:

- When you prepay, your Provider must give you a contract that states the total amount of money you have paid to-date and the terms of payment for any balance you owe.
- If you prepay with a funeral establishment for funeral supplies and services or a transfer service for transfer supplies and services, your money is protected by a compensation fund which is used to return money to consumers if, in rare cases, their prepaid money is not available when needed. The fund will cover losses only if you prepaid with a licensed funeral establishment or transfer service.
- The Provider is required by law to choose only safe investments for prepaid trust funds.

DID YOU KNOW?

Bodies that have microscopic radioactive implants (brachytherapy) may be cremated. Prohibitions of cremations would be based on the length of time since the implant. Please ensure this is disclosed to the crematorium operator.

- Copies of any other documents you have signed

For your own records, you should keep:

- Your cancelled cheques or electronic payment records
- Receipts as proof of payment

Remember to ask:

- About the advantages and disadvantages of paying by insurance or having your prepaid money held in trust
- Where your money will be invested, and the type of investment and expected growth

- What your refund will be if you cancel your insurance policy
- About the guarantee that must be provided on all prepaid contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2012
- What fees will apply if you choose to cancel the contract
